From the Principal's Desk

It's great to be back in session for the second half of the school year!! It was good to see all of the students, after nearly 2 weeks off.

We are welcoming 3 new students to our school! Glenna and Grace-lyn Barnett started on January 5 and Riggin Isaacs will begin pre-school on Monday, January 12! They are wonderful additions!

Volleyball Clinic: Some of our 4th-8th grade girls participated in an after school, five day Volleyball Clinic this week, led by Samantha McKiddy, Sarah Frampton, Jacob McKiddy, and Maddie Williams. The girls learned the basic techniques of the game and got to put them into practice. It was a wonderful learning experience for the girls and we appreciated them having this opportunity!

May God Bless You,
Pamela Brobst, Principal

Bible Trivia Game

All K-8 students will participate in a Bible Bowl during Catholic School's Week. If you have a Bible Trivia game that we could use as a resource, could you please send it to school and we will return it to you?

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

We were notified recently that Maggie and C.J. Pfaff were chosen as essay contest winners! They are the daughter and son of Jill and Justin Pfaff. Maggie received first place in the local American Legion Patriotism Essay contest. Her essay was submitted to the state level competition and there she placed third!! Way to go, Maggie!

C.J.'s essay that was entered into the Daughters of American Revolution American History Essay Contest placed first place in the 7th grade division, among all of the area schools. His entry is being submitted to the state contest. Good luck, C.J. We are proud of both of our Bishop Hogan students!
