SERVICES MSA PROVIDES TO HELP SHERIFFS AND THEIR COMMUNITIES

Stronger Legislative Support

MSA advocates in Jefferson City for legislation which helps our sheriffs and their staffs fight crime in Missouri. We offer standards and policies which maintain consistency and reduce lawsuits.

A Bright Future for Missouri Law Enforcement

- MSA's 700-hour basic training academy graduates the most new officers of any program in Missouri.
- MSA provides youth scholarships for high school seniors interested in pursuing careers in law enforcement.

Services for Victims of Crime

A violent crime happens in Missouri every 17.7 seconds. The MSA Crime Victims unit assists sheriffs in providing immediate, comprehensive services for victims. We offer referrals to advocacy services, crisis intervention, support and information about the system. For more details, email cvu@mosheriffs.com.

Help for Officers' Families in Time of Need

The MSA Benevolent Fund provides financial support for the families of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty.

Research and Technology

MSA helps keep sheriffs up-to-date with the latest law enforcement research and technology by writing grants and providing products and systems which assist the sheriffs to more effectively perform their duties in today's changing world.

Conferences and Seminars

MSA offers two annual sheriffs' conferences, which provide opportunities to participate in continuing education. In addition, several other conferences held throughout the year offer sheriffs and their staffs specialized training on the latest trends and techniques in law enforcement.

Classroom and Practical Training

Continuing education classes are offered online and in multiple locations throughout the state. Both options help sheriffs and deputies fulfill state-mandated continuing training requirements.

Your Connection to Missouri Sheriffs

The Missouri Sheriff magazine provides the latest news and information about topics of interest in Missouri law enforcement.

The MSA website, www.mosheriffs.com, is a valuable resource for both law enforcement and citizens.

MISSOURI SHERIFFS' ASSOCIATION TRAINING ACADEMY

The Missouri Sheriffs' Association Training Academy (MSATA) is a state-licensed basic training academy, which graduates more new licensed peace officers than any other program in Missouri. The MSATA 700-hour basic peace officer academy exceeds the State of Missouri's minimum basic training requirements for peace officer licensing.

Basic academy classes are offered both full-time in Jefferson City and part-time at satellite locations throughout the state. Financial aid and college credits are available. Visit www.mosheriffs.com for more information or to download an application.
